DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

2. In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

3. Group I, claim(s) 1, 47-68, 99 and 10 and 104, drawn to method for preparing liposomes, liposomes do not contain biologically active substance.

4. Group II, claim(s) 2-46, 69-98, 101 and 102, 103, 105 and 106, drawn to method for preparing liposomes, liposomes contain biologically active substance.

5. The groups of inventions listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: At least claim 1 lacks general technical feature because the method of claim 1 is taught by a) Minchey et al. (US 5,415,867, May 16, 1995; see at least Example 1; column 2, lines 36-58; column 3, lines 18-23; column 4, lines 53-65), b) Hsu (US 5,653,996; see at least column 4, lines 8-18), c) Schneider (US 4,224,179; see at least Example 9), d) Yau-Young (US 5,023,087; see at least the abstract; column 6, lines 31-38; columns 7 and 8; column 10, lines 50-68; column 11; column 13, lines 5-20; column 14, lines 16-25). The “wherein if the gel or liquid containing gel particles contains at least one acidic phospholipid, the content of at least one acidic phospholipid is about 30% to about 100% by weight of the lipids in the gel or liquid ..." is either present or not. The cited references do not contain acidic phospholipid and any did, the acidic phospholipid is one of the choices. Also what is mixed with the aqueous medium in II (a) is a liquid or gel and the cited references teach liquid or gel. Therefore, at least claim 1 has demonstrated lack of unity and because claim 1 lacks novelty and inventive step that makes contribution over the prior art, restriction according to US practice is proper.

Election of Species

6. If applicant elects Group I, applicant is further requested to further elect one specific organic solvent.
7. If applicant elects Group II, applicant is further requested to further elect one specific organic solvent, one specific biologically active substance, one specific liposome forming lipid, the method of claim 2 or 102 or 103 or 105 or 106. Applicant is also further requested to elect conducting the method step (I) in the absence or presence of hydrating agent.
8. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.
9. The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse. Traversal must be presented at the time of election in order to be considered timely. Failure to timely traverse the requirement will result in the loss of right to petition under 37 CFR 1.144. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which of these claims are readable on the elected invention or species.

10. Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions have unity of invention (37 CFR 1.475(a)), applicant must provide reasons in support thereof. Applicant may submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. Where such evidence or admission is provided by applicant, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

11. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
